Established in 2012, Compass Child and Family Services (CLG) is a Charity offering out of home care arrangements for children in the care of the Irish State. Our philosophy of working with children and their families is guided by the principles of Social Pedagogy.

- Compass CFS works with families and its individual members to support and encourage the effective functioning of families living in Ireland.
- Compass CFS provides residential medium to long-term care for children and young people in the care of the Irish

State.

- The fostering and promotion of aid to children, young people and their families in accordance with the Child Care Act, 1991 and Children's Act, 2001.
- Compass CFS provides Aftercare services and supports for young persons over 18 years old.

All our services and how we engage in our work, is guided by Social Pedagogical Principles. Social Pedagogy is based on humanistic values stressing human dignity, mutual respect, trust, unconditional appreciation and equality. It is underpinned by a fundamental concept of children, young people and adults as equal human beings with rich and extraordinary potential and considers them competent, resourceful and active agents.

Our organisation and its services are of a size that allows a sense of connectedness and familiarity between its people, and this is reflected in our model of care and philosophy, which truly values the importance of relationships and respect. This allows for a qualitative sense of purpose within the lived everyday experience for adults and Young People alike.

If you are curious, person centred and ambitious for positive outcomes for young people, then working with Compass CFS has much to offer you in helping you to achieve meaningful goals in your professional journey.
