

Asthma Society of Ireland: Finance & Compliance Manager (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/108742>)

Finance & Compliance Manager

About the Role

An opportunity has arisen for an experienced individual to fill the position of Finance & Compliance Manager with the Asthma Society of Ireland. Reporting to the CEO, the post-holder will contribute to the efficient delivery of day-to-day financial, audit and governance processes and procedures; and will report on financial performance, governance compliance, and internal and external audits.

The post holder will work closely with the CEO to ensure meticulous control of the organisation's finances and set the highest standards across the organisation in accountability, transparency, and governance. They will develop and maintain policies, processes, and procedures to optimise financial sustainability and good governance throughout the organisation.

ASI are seeking an individual with a proven record of managing finance functions and understand the importance of strong governance, ideally in a nonprofit organisation. They must be able to think strategically, valuing accuracy and attention to detail, with proven analytical and problem-solving skills. They will also have a passion for the Asthma Society of Ireland's purpose and will continually act in the best interests of the organisation.

Please see candidate briefing document attached below.

About Asthma Society of Ireland (ASI)

The Asthma Society of Ireland was established in 1973 by a group of healthcare professionals and individuals affected by asthma. Its primary goal was to provide support and education to people with asthma and their families. Over the years, the society has expanded its services and activities, becoming a leading voice for asthma awareness and advocacy in Ireland. They are the voice of the 450,000 people with asthma in Ireland, and their work radically transforms their quality of life.
