

Fold Housing: Clinical Nurse (Governance) (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/109018>)

Vacancy Announcement

Fold Housing is an approved Housing Body established in 2002. The Association owns and manages a range of social housing properties in the Greater Dublin area catering for frail, older people, people with Dementia, families and single people.

At Fold we recognise that staff are at the centre of our success. We are committed to a culture of openness, transparency and collaboration and actively seek to understand our social impact and explore ways to improve our services.

We value the relationships our staff maintain with our tenants, residents, families, the many statutory and voluntary organisations, and key stakeholders who we partner with and take pride in what we achieve together.

We are now seeking to recruit a key position within our Care Services Department.

Clinical Nurse (Governance)

We have an exciting opportunity to join our team in Care Services. We are seeking applications from suitably qualified Clinical Governance Nurse' to join our collaborative, dynamic and high performing housing with care team. Our care services departments provide tailored care and support to residents in our two care schemes ensuring they live a healthy fulfilled life.

As a Clinical Nurse Governance leader, you will provide the necessary oversight to maintain high standards of care in Fold. The role involves direct involvement in care delivery, ensuring safety of our residents, supporting staff, and effectively managing the team to uphold our commitment to quality care.
