

Sage Advocacy: Regional Manager & Project Manager Survivors of Institutional Abuse (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/109106>)

Sage Advocacy is recruiting for

Regional Manager x 1 (Dublin & Midlands and Dublin & South East)

About

Sage Advocacy is the National Advocacy Service for Older People. It works to ensure that people have easy access to independent support and advocacy services in all settings: homes, day centres, respite facilities, congregated care settings / nursing homes, hospitals, hostels, hospices and in the process of transition between them. It is currently expanding its services with the support of the Dept of Education to meet the support and advocacy needs of survivors of institutional abuse. Since it was established in 2014, with the support of the HSE and The Atlantic Philanthropies, it has built a strong reputation for independence of thought and action and is a 'go to' service in relation to issues of capacity and decision making.

Sage Advocacy is now recruiting for the following post: Regional Manager Dublin and Midlands and Dublin and South East

Essential Criteria

Demonstrated experience with managing teams for a minimum of two years. Experience with providing support & supervision to team members carrying out casework.

Required to travel across the region and have flexibility to accommodate attending events or providing support outside the usual working hours.
