Qualitative research on the experiences of Beneficiaries of Temporary Protection and International Protection Applicants supported under the Social Inclusion and Community Activation Programme. Tender 0304

Reference 0304 - SICAP: Experience of support under SICAP for New Arrivals:

Invitation to Tender: Qualitative research on the experiences of Beneficiaries of Temporary Protection and International Protection Applicants supported under the Social Inclusion and Community Activation Programme

Summary

This research aims to record and share the experiences of beneficiaries of the types and manner of SICAP supports provided for those in receipt of temporary protection and/or seeking international protection. The research aims to contribute to an enhanced perspective of the challenges, good practice and supports needed for beneficiaries of temporary protection and people seeking international protection in Ireland.

Using semi-structured interviews, the researcher will explore how SICAP has contributed to various aspects of beneficiaries' lives since moving to Ireland, producing a report which will incorporate case studies developed as part of the research process.

Timeframe

This project is expected to last 16 weeks in duration. This project will begin circa end of July 2024, with an interim progress report by mid-September 2024 and the final report to be completed and approved by end of November 2024.

Costing

A maximum budget of €22,000 (ex. VAT and all associated costs for the duration of the project) is approved for this project.

All submissions should be emailed to ocosgrove@pobal.ie (<mailto:ocosgrove@pobal.ie>) on or before 17:00hrs on Tuesday 9th July 2024 and include:

- Cover letter.
- Brief overview of organisation/consultancy and suitable personnel for project lead.
