Fostering First Ireland is a leading national independent fostering agency that is part of the international Key Assets Group. The role offers the opportunity to work within a global company providing high quality and safe services in an environment that supports continuous improvement, learning and innovation.

We are looking for a dynamic, enthusiastic, self-motivated Social Care Worker who can both work independently and collaboratively within an organisation committed to best practice. If you want to be part of a global organisation that is making a difference and changing lives, FFI may be the place for you.

Responsibilities:

- To provide support to children and young people placed with FFI foster carers.
- To provide support to the birth children of FFI foster carers.
- To promote children and young people's participation within FFI.
- To contribute to the development of children's services through the provision of training/workshops in response to the identified needs of service users.
- To work collaboratively with the wider FFI team and external stakeholders

Knowledge and experience:

- A recognised qualification (minimum Level 7) in Social Care or equivalent (must be eligible for CORU registration as a Social Care Worker).
- A minimum of 3 year's experience of working directly with children/young people in the care system or other related field.
- Knowledge of theoretical frameworks underpinning work with children and adolescents.
- A sound knowledge of child protection procedures and the requirements of the Children First Act 2015.

Personal Attributes & Requirements

- You will be a self-starter, comfortable with taking initiative and a creative problem solver
- Flexibility and adaptability
- Ability to work on own initiative and in collaboration with a multi-disciplinary team
- Committed to best practice and be innovative and open to change
- You must have a full, clean driving licence
- You must have good organisational, IT and paperwork management skills
- This role requires flexibility regarding working hours including regular evening and occasional weekend working and extensive travel.
