Job Title: Youth Voice & Engagement Coordinator

Location: Jigsaw National Office, 16 Westland Square, Pearse St. Dublin 2

Responsible To: Youth Voice & Engagement Manager

Contract Type: Permanent

Position Summary

The Youth Voice & Engagement Coordinator will be responsible for coordinating and further developing youth voice and influence, particularly in the context of youth mental health, at Jigsaw. This role will emphasise a rights-based approach to youth participation and engagement, ensuring that young people's rights to have their voices heard and considered in decision-making processes, are upheld in Jigsaw.

The post holder will support the Youth Voice & Engagement Manager in developing, implementing, and evaluating strategies to enhance youth engagement across Jigsaw. This involves informing the design and coordination of participation methodologies, providing staff training, and ensuring high standards of youth engagement practices among Jigsaw staff to keep the voice of young people and their right to be heard central to Jigsaw's work.

Additionally, the Youth Voice & Engagement Coordinator will collaborate with internal and external partners involved in rights-based work across Ireland. This collaboration aims to share learning, foster innovation and evolve best practices in youth participation. By working together with other organisations committed to rights-based approaches, Jigsaw seeks to enhance the collective impact on youth mental health and ensure that the voices of young people are at the forefront of national discussions, developments and policy making.

Role Supports

To support the post holder, the Youth Voice & Engagement Manager will provide regular supervision. In addition, any training/upskilling required by the post holder to enable them to maximise their role, will be provided on the job as identified through supervision to support the person within their role.
