

Carr's Child and Family Services: Early Years Educator (Various Roles) (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/109415>)

Carr's Child and Family Services CLG is a charity, referral, and residential-based service catering to vulnerable children and their families from newborn - 5 years. We are committed to providing outstanding service to all children who use the service. We recognize the central importance of good quality early years' service in transforming the lives of children through play, positive transitions, and supportive adult-child interactions. Our staff team adopts an inclusive approach with families, including using a key worker system, participation, and consultation. The overarching aim is to ensure that children within our service are happy, safe, and well and receive personalized care in a homely, safe, stimulating, and nurturing environment.

Carr's Child and Family Services are seeking qualified and experienced Educators to work in our Early Years Service.
