Communications and Campaigns Officer

The Irish Council for Civil Liberties (ICCL), Ireland's foremost civil liberties organisation with a long and successful track record of defending human rights, is recruiting a Communications and Campaigns Officer.

Reporting to the Head of Communications and Development, the person in this role will work closely with colleagues drive our communications and campaigning agenda. This will include handling media relations; event management; overseeing a content editorial calendar; and coordinating communications projects including the ICCL Human Rights Film Awards.

The deadline for applications is Sunday 18 August 2024. Full information about how to apply and the recruitment process is available on our website, <https://www.iccl.ie/news/were-hiring-are-you-our-new-communications-and-campaigns-officer/> (<https://www.iccl.ie/news/were-hiring-are-you-our-new-communications-and-campaigns-officer/>)
