Employment Opportunities with Accord: Ireland's Marriage and Relationship Experts

Calling all Marriage and Relationship Therapists!

ACCORD Dublin is now hiring:

- 1. Marriage and Relationship Counsellors – In Person and Online (Dublin based)
- 2. Marriage and Relationship Counsellors – Online (Island-wide)

ACCORD Dublin was established in 1968 to provide marriage and relationship counselling and education support across the lifespan – Relationship Sexuality Education to young people in Schools, Marriage Preparation and Marriage and Relationship Counselling.

Our organisation, with its new headquarters in Pembroke Road, Dublin, has successfully completed a major transformation and change process and is now developing and growing our professional marriage and relationship counselling service, leading the way in best practice and innovative service delivery for all in need.

ACCORD Dublin is proud to be an equal opportunities employer. We are passionate in our commitment to diversity, equality and inclusion. We value and respect working with each one of our clients, regardless of sex or sexuality, gender, race, ethnicity, family status, faith or creed, age or ability.

ACCORD Dublin is very grateful for the financial support from TUSLA The Child and Family Agency, client session financial contributions and public donations to ensure our counselling services are accessible to everyone.

These new employment positions offer long-term employment, professional development opportunities and a role in making a positive and meaningful contribution to building our community of practice now and into the future.

Successful applicants will gain:

- Permanent, part-time employment for two, three or four shifts per week
- Competitive salary commensurate with experience and availability (Whole time equivalent range 55-65K)
- Full induction training and ongoing Clinical Management support
- In-House Clinical Supervision
- Minimum of 8 points of Continuous Professional Development (CPD) training per year
- Company PRSA – Employers contribution of 7% of your salary, tax free
- Paid Holidays and Benefits
- Company Laptop and Microsoft Premium Software
- Company digital phone account

You will need to have:

- Professional Accreditation in the Republic of Ireland, the UK or equivalent
- Evidence of Training and Experience in Couples Therapy
- Availability to work evenings to meet client demand
- A positive and enthusiastic team spirit and commitment to our mission, vision and values

In the first instance please apply by 9th September through email, attaching your CV and accreditation status to:
