Tender for Service: Clinical Supervision

Restorative Justice Services (RJS) is a non-for-profit organisation that works restoratively with people affected by crime. In partnership with our stakeholders, we offer restorative programmes that focus on meeting the needs of victims of crime whilst challenging the behaviour of those who offend.

“Restorative Justice is a victim sensitive response to criminal offending, which, through engagement with those affected by crime, aims to make amends for the harm that has been caused to victims and communities and which facilitates offender rehabilitation and integration into society.” (National Commission on Restorative Justice, 2009)
