- To work directly with young people and adults with additional needs.
- Work within our energetic activity based alternative respite programme (Ember Camps)
- To develop and maintain a good working relationship with participants and other staff members
- To ensure that all work done complies with both organisational and statutory health and safety regulations and legislation.
- Any other duties commensurate with the post

Essential Criteria for Applicants

- Qualification in Social Care/Healthcare Assistant/Special Needs Assistant/Outdoor sports or relevant qualification in this field (desirable).
- Experience with people with additional needs (desirable)
- Use of own car (desirable) as our location sites are typically not on bus routes
- First aid qualification (desirable)
- An ability to work flexibly and in an innovative way

Benefits

- Competitive rate of pay (reflecting experience and qualifications experience)
- Access to pension
- Training
