

West Cork Beacon: Domestic Violence Support Worker (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/110675>)

West Cork Beacon (formerly West Cork Women Against Violence) provides specialised domestic and sexual abuse supports and services throughout West Cork. It operates confidential, non-judgemental supports to women and children experiencing domestic abuse and specialised counselling to both women and men from 14 years upwards who have experienced sexual violence. The organisation operates several innovative projects including a safe house, specialised therapy for children living with domestic abuse and provides training to a range of other agencies and organisations on how support survivors of abuse.

Our services are client-centred which means that our approach is based on their needs. We work to empower our clients and to provide a respectful, trauma informed response to all survivors.

We are currently recruiting for Domestic Violence Support Worker to join the organisation.

The post is 37 hrs per week. Part time hours may also be considered.

Job Description and Application form are included with this advert.
