Let's Draw! Join us for a free outdoor public event for all ages at The Jackie Clarke Collection where you can use your phone or tablet to draw in real time on a building! Renowned French artist and technologist Maxime Touroute has developed the cutting-edge technology that powers this interactive experience. His intuitive web-based interface allows anyone, regardless of artistic ability, to contribute to the collective artwork. The event is an outdoor event and it will feature DJ's creating a live sound scape to accompany the projections.

Let's Draw is a fun, interactive digital art installation presented by the French based Live Drawing Project in association with Ballina Arts Centre, the French Embassy, The Architecture At The Edge Festival and Jackie Clarke Collection. The project is supported by Creative Mayo Communities Grant Scheme 2024.

The event merges AI technology with live image mapping where you can interact and have your drawings and images become part of the show in real time.

A live midi mapped projection from The Jackie Clarke onto the Hugh Ruddy building opposite will provide the canvas which you are all invited to illustrate. You will be given access to free software that you can use on your phone without needing to install any apps. You will also be given ideas and themes to awaken your creativity.
