

IASIO: Temporary Resettlement Coordinator, Midlands & Portlaoise Prisons (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/110866>)

IASIO (the Irish Association for Social Inclusion Opportunities), is a national organisation that works with State agencies in the development and delivery of services to marginalised groups, enabling communities to become more socially inclusive through best practice service provision. IASIO's current operational scope includes three national Services and two smaller projects: The Linkage Service, the Gate Service, the Resettlement Service; and The Community Support Scheme and The Supported Employment Service. In particular, it is the only national organisation for adult offenders in the community and voluntary sector with a specific focus on alternatives to both offending and re-imprisonment. This is achieved through the provision of direct services to offenders in the community and to prisoners, services which range from 1-to-1 guidance and placement into training, education, employment, group work, psychometric assessment, resettlement planning & support and placement in the community. IASIO's core mission is the social inclusion of people marginalised from mainstream opportunity.

The Resettlement Coordinator Role:

The prison-based Resettlement Coordinator (RC) offers a 'through-the-gate' resettlement support for prisoners both before and after release. The RC aims to help identify a prisoner's resettlement needs and develops a release and post-release plan that offers the best chance of success for that person on release from prison.
