

All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care: Programme Manager – Education & Practice (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/110953>)

Programme Manager – Education & Practice

A vacancy has arisen for a 'Programme Manager – Education and Practice' in All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care (AIHPC).

The Programme Manager - Education and Practice is a senior post within AIHPC supporting the AIHPC CEO to advance the AIHPC's key strategic role within the hospice and palliative care environment across the two jurisdictions (Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland) in line with AIHPC's values, aims and objectives. The Programme Manager - Education and Practice supports AIHPC's member organisations and key stakeholders in developing innovative and engaging palliative care education across undergraduate, postgraduate and continuing professional development for health and social care professionals and programmes targeted for the wider public. The post holder will also support practice based programmes including quality improvement initiatives and Communities of Practice targeted at specialist palliative care. Reporting to AIHPC's CEO, the post-holder will focus on strategic implementation and operational issues facilitating the AIHPC Education and Practice work programme. The post-holder will work collaboratively as part of the AIHPC team.

The post is 1.0 WTE and will be filled on a whole-time indefinite duration. This post is based in Dublin at the AIHPC Office, Education and Research Centre, Our Lady's Hospice & Care Services, Harold's Cross. Remote working will be considered although there will be a requirement to attend the AIHPC office for meetings.

Closing date for receipt of applications is 12 noon, Thursday 10 October
