About Making Connections

Making Connections is a Dublin based volunteer-led non-profit organisation. Our mission is to alleviate loneliness and isolation among older people, empowering them to age well in their own homes and stay connected in their community. We deliver a range of community-based individual and group supports. Our main partners include HSE, local government, business partners and other local agencies.

About the Role

We're looking for an energetic and experienced team player with a winning combination of leadership skills, warmth and positivity. If you're a people's person who effortlessly connects with others and inspires collaboration, we want you on our team. The ideal candidate will have an entrepreneurial spirit – eager to bring fresh ideas, strong motivation to achieve targets, and the resilience to navigate challenges. If you are mission-driven, grounded, and eager to contribute to a larger purpose, we would love to hear from you.
