Date: Thursday 24 October.

Time: 10.30am to 1pm

Venue: Ormond Meeting Rooms, 31-36, Ormond Quay Upper, Dublin 7.

When two or more individuals or groups come together to work in partnership, creating a group agreement at the start sets the foundations for a good partnership.

The PPI Ignite Network invites individuals and organisations interested in partnership working, especially in health and social care research, to an in-person workshop in Dublin.

The workshop will explore the value of agreements, who should be involved in creating agreements and how to create agreements and ensure that agreements are honoured.
