STAND

ROLE: STAND Facilitator (Irish Language): Irish Aid Centre

STAND is a mission-driven, not-for-profit organisation mobilising third level students and graduates to stand up for global justice, equality and sustainability. We do this by creating opportunities to inspire, educate and activate students to understand the root causes of global injustices and equip them with the confidence and skills to be catalysts for positive change.

STAND is contracted by Irish Aid to provide Facilitation and Public Awareness Services in support of Irish Aid's Public Awareness Programme. To this end STAND is now recruiting a new facilitator, to deliver workshops primarily in the Irish Language to join a dynamic, diverse team. This job will be based in the Irish Aid Centre in Clonmel Street, Dublin 2.

The purpose of the facilitator role is to contribute to the achievement of the Irish Aid Public Awareness Programme by working as part of a team to deliver workshops for primary, secondary and third level students, support with public outreach events, respond to public queries and manage the stock and provision of Irish Aid materials.

For more details on this role and list of responsibilities, please see the full Job Description below.
