Role: Business Coach

Directorate: Social Inclusion & Employment

Hub: Programme Delivery & Services Hub

Unit: Programme & Community Impact

Grade: 3

Reporting to: Manager – Programme and Community Impact Unit

Background

The Achieve Together Social Innovation Coaching and Mentoring Programme (AT+) is a Department of Rural and Community Affairs (DRCD) Initiative developed in conjunction with, and delivered by, Pobal and designed for the Community Services Programme (CSP) supported organisations utilising ESF+ funding. Funding is in place until June 2029.

The introduction of the Business Coach Co-Ordinator position is a new venture for Pobal as it is a dedicated role established to provide practical coaching, supports and guidance to Community Services Programme supported organisations.

Positioned in the Programme and Community Impact Unit, the successful candidate will be part of a team that is responsible for the development and management of a suite of support interventions for CSP supported organisations.

The available role is solely focused on the Department of Rural & Community Development Achieve Together Social Innovation Coaching and Mentoring Programme (AT+).

Please see Job Description and Person Specification attached below.
