Renew Social Enterprise Worker (Full-Time)

Renew Enterprises is a not-for-profit Social Enterprise operated by Treo Port Lairge CLG. It was established to create full-time employment for people most distant from the labour market. Committed to social inclusion and social justice, the enterprise provides opportunities for its employees to learn, train and practice new skills and to experience working in a real time working environment. Those employed to work in Renew Enterprises gain qualifications, a job history, and work references to help them move on to their own chosen careers.

Renew Enterprises provides a range of products and services for people in the local community and community organisations in the Waterford and South East area
