

Meath Partnership: Global Citizenship Education Training (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/111891>)

GCE Training

As part of our Irish Aid funded project 'Connecting Cultures – Sustaining Our World', we are offering a free two day GCE course for Adult and Community Educators, Community practitioners and activists to build their understanding of the principles of integration and inclusion through a GCE lens. The aim of this training is to support both community practitioners and citizens to deepen the understanding of the complexity attached to the prevalent issues affecting communities across the globe and we are delighted to welcome Dr Lilian Nwanze as guest speaker. The course takes place on the 19th and 26th of November in the Ardboyne Hotel, Navan, Co Meath.
