INVITATION TO TENDER

The Gambling Awareness Trust wishes to contract a consultant or organisation to conduct an evaluation of the National Problem Gambling Support Service pilot programme delivered by the National Forum of Family Resource Centres through 26 Family Resource Centres across the country.

We are eager to ensure the funding we provided since the commencement of this pilot in 2021 to deliver professional specialist counselling and Family Support services to individuals experiencing gambling harm and their affected others represents value for money and is addressing the needs of the intended target group.

This is an open invitation to tender, seeking applications from suitably qualified individuals and teams.
