Project Manager

Dublin

Full Time 3 Years Fixed Term

Immediate Applications are now invited for the above position; -

Position Overview

The Game Changer project is an awareness raising project on Domestic, Sexual and Gender-Based Violence (DSGBV) that aims to challenge society's social and cultural norms that contribute to gender-based violence and sexual exploitation. The project partners are Ruhama, the Men's Development Network and the GAA, with the support of the LGFA and Camogie Associations.

We are seeking a dynamic Project Manager to lead out on this project. Coordinating closely with the Ruhama CEO and Policy and Communications Coordinator, you will lead on managing the development, delivery, and evaluation of the Game Changer Project over a 3-year period. The Project Manager will be responsible for coordinating the project in collaboration with our two project partners Gaelic Athletic Association, and Men's Development Network.

The successful candidate will be highly motivated, empathetic and enthusiastic and have the relevant experience and attributes to take on this dynamic and exciting role.

This post is full time for a 3-year fixed term and will be based in Ruhama's Dublin city centre office.

Competitive Salary Scale - €45,900-€54,800 (depending on experience)
