

GCN presents Poz World Panel: A World AIDS Day live podcast (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/112280>)

GCN & Poz Vibe are proud to present Poz World Panel: A World AIDS Day live podcast. The very special fundraising event will be hosted at Trinity College Dublin (Ed Burke Theatre, Trinity's Arts Building), on December 1 - 6pm.

The 2024 World AIDS Day theme is 'Collective Action: Sustain and Accelerate HIV Progress', and to mark the occasion, we are highlighting how hearing the voices of the most marginalised members of our community is vital to fighting stigma and achieving progress.

In this live podcast, HIV activists Robbie Lawlor and Veda will lead a conversation with activists Prateek Bhardwaj, Christopher Freibott and Luis Noguera Benitez about how discourses on immigration and HIV are conducted and how people's HIV status is often weaponised in racist rhetoric. There will also be a Q&A session at the end of the event, allowing audience members to contribute to the discussion and engage with the guests.
