Youth Work for All Clubs and Volunteers Coordinator

Funder: DCEDIY Volunteer Activation Fund

Location: This is a hybrid role combining working from home with frequent travel to Youth Work Ireland member services

Description of Project:

The key objective of the Volunteer Activation Fund is to increase capacity in the youth sector through increasing the overall number of volunteers taking part in the sector, increasing the number of volunteer-led youth clubs across the State, and enhancing organisations' ability to support volunteers.

The Fund is intended to support initiatives that will deliver on this objective, including initiatives focused on:

- Recruiting and supporting new volunteers;
- Establishing new volunteer-led clubs;
- Encouraging young people to volunteer; Retaining volunteers;
- Developing training materials (including making resources available online); and
- Promote and facilitate regional and national networking of volunteers and young people to surface and support best practice in supporting volunteers

In line with the stated fund objectives, this role will support the development of additional youth clubs and youth club volunteers by working with volunteers, youth club support staff, and youth workers who interact with clubs. New resources, promotion campaigns and electronic infrastructure will be developed. Training and direct support will be delivered to youth work staff and volunteers. Volunteers, club workers and youth workers will be engaged in identifying needs and in the co-design of resources. Particular attention will be given to underserved geographic areas, growing areas of club development such as clubs for young people with additional needs and emerging topics such as climate justice.
