What does Ballyowen Meadows do?

Ballyowen Meadows is a residential based family assessment centre. This purpose-built centre provides a unique setting in which the strengths and difficulties of a family can be assessed in a safe and secure environment. We believe that it is in the best interest of children to remain within the primary family unit. This unique environment combines traditional child protection residential placements with the awareness of the importance of family in the lives of children even when family circumstances are the direct cause of child protection concerns. The model aims to be preventative in its design enabling service providers to uniquely address child protection issues within the families while at the same time supporting families to remain connected with each other.
