I am A 72-year-old woman seeking a Personal Assistant (PA)To enable me enjoy equality of life as a disabled woman.

In my working life, I was a trainer, adviser and consultant to social services, police service and nursing and education services in two specialist areas ; christianity and abuse and disability and abuse.

I am well known disability activist and have won many awards for my work.

However I have a rare neuromuscular disease Resulting in Full time use of a power wheelchair. I am also partially deaf which require hearing aids and a PA with clear, good English

I require a mature PA who can undertake:

Personal care eg dressing, washing etc, Accompany me to various medical appointments, look after medication and to assist me with TV / radio stations/HSE/Government and NGO's meetings and protests.

The person who applies must have computer skills, the ability to negotiate with others on my behalf, be competent to handle the secretarial side of my life, to manage a. House, and generally support me to have full access to all I want to do.

You must hold a clean driving license, be garda vetted and have manual handling qualifications. Confidentially and respect is essential.
