

Sensational Kids: Community & Voluntary Board Member with Charity Funding Experience (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/113224>)

Sensational Kids is seeking a Voluntary Board Member

The Role: Community & Voluntary Board Member with Charity Funding Experience

The Organisation:

Sensational Kids is a social enterprise with charitable status that provides reduced cost therapeutic supports to children and adolescents with additional needs from our four regional Child Development Centres, which are strategically located in every province in Ireland.

Celebrating our 16th year in operation this year, Sensational Kids has already positively impacted the lives of over 10,000 children, saving their families over €3 million in therapy fees. Each week 300+ children avail of therapeutic supports at Sensational Kids.

In addition to training workshops and a newly launched online learning platform, for educators and parents, Sensational Kids also operates a Child Development & Learning Store, which is Ireland's only child development and learning store that is run as a social enterprise to help fund its therapy services.

Sensational Kids is currently embarking on its most ambitious project to date, to build a 17,000 square feet National Child Development Centre on a greenfield site in Kildare Town.

General Trustee duties of a Charity Trustee
