Overview

This course will introduce participants to the key principles of mentoring and equip them with the necessary skills to effectively support mentees. The programme provides practical tools and techniques that will enable employees to make a positive impact as mentors.

Who is it for?

The programme is aimed at those who are new to mentoring and is designed to boost their confidence as a mentor by providing them with practical tools and techniques that they can implement immediately.

What we will cover

1. Benefits of mentoring
2. Types of me
3. The role of a mentor
4. Mentoring lifecycle
5. Mentoring approaches
6. Mentoring skills
7. Running an effective mentoring session
8. The mentoring relationship

Positive Outcomes for Your Organisation

By the end of the programme, participants will be able to:

- Differentiate between different types of development roles and recognise the difference between coaching and mentoring
- Describe the benefits of mentoring for a mentee, mentor and an organisation
- Identify the skills and qualities required to be an effective mentor and assess own current capabilities in line with these requirements
