

Dublin Rape Crisis Centre: Volunteers Needed (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/113273>)

Do you have 4 hours a week to make a difference?

Dublin Rape Crisis Centre is there for anyone affected by sexual violence, every step of the way. Our mission is to prevent the harm and heal the trauma of rape and other forms of sexual violence. Every year, DRCC receives more than 18,000 contacts on the 24-hour freephone National Helpline and provides accompaniment to victims/survivors seeking forensic medical attention at the Sexual Assault Treatment Unit (SATU) at any time of day or night. The centre also provides accompaniment to those going through the legal process at Garda stations and in court.

To maintain these services, DRCC is seeking volunteers for the following roles:

- Volunteer Crisis Counsellor on the National Helpline
This role involves providing crisis counselling over the phone on the 24/7 sexual violence counselling line to those affected by sexual violence. Crisis counsellors offer empathy, listening, affirmation, support and accurate information. This National Helpline is used by survivors, victims, their supporters and frontline professionals.
- Volunteer Accompaniment Support at the Sexual Assault Treatment Unit (SATU)
This role involves providing accompaniment support to those attending the Sexual Assault Treatment Unit (SATU) after rape or sexual assault, for medical and forensic examinations. The accompaniment service is available to victims/survivors and any supporters with them. During their time with Dublin Rape Crisis Centre, volunteers will be offered further training by our Accompaniment Department to provide accompaniment to court and garda stations.
