THE NEXT STAGE

Sage Advocacy's mission is to promote, protect and safeguard the rights and dignity of older people, vulnerable adults, and healthcare patients through individual and systemic advocacy. In the context of recent and planned legislative, health and social care developments, of growing demand for our services and of our 2nd Statement of Strategy 'The Next Stage', Sage is now recruiting for the following roles:

Regional Advocates Focused on Care Transitions x 5 (Dublin – Cork – Galway)

The purpose of this role is to provide an enhanced independent advocacy service to older people and vulnerable adults in transitions between care settings with a particular emphasis on supporting hospital and community-based staff in managing transfers of care and transitional care issues related, but not limited to decision-making capacity, safeguarding, protection of liberty, end of life care and identifying systems issues that arise. The work will require building effective working relationships with Senior Management Teams of Integrated Care Areas and the acute hospitals within them.

Regional Managers x 2 (West & North-West) & (Dublin & South-East)

As our service expands, we are moving towards having a manager for each of the 6 health and social care regions. Regional Managers will support, guide and manage the service in each region and across all care settings, will work closely with the Legal Support Unit, colleagues in the Service Management Group and will report to the Case Management & Support (Asst CEO).

Human Resources & Support Coordinator x1

This HR focused post will lead on issues related to day-to-day HR operations, health & safety, recruitment, staff support including mentoring and skills development, and will report to Operations & Governance (Deputy CEO).

If you are interested in any of these positions please carefully read the relevant job & person profiles, 'The Next Stage - Statement of Strategy 2025 – 2027', and our Quality Standards www.sageadvocacy.ie (<http://www.sageadvocacy.ie/>) before you send your CV, and a covering letter of no more than 2 pages. Please indicate in the email subject line which role(s) you are applying for.
