Disability Legal Information Clinic

Online and in-person appointments available

Do you have a question the Disability Legal Information Clinic \(https://www.universityofgalway.ie/centre-disability-law-policy/dlic/\) can help with? The clinic provides free, accessible and confidential legal information on issues related to disability to disabled people, their families and supporters across Ireland. Queries can include issues around disability and education, employment, discrimination, the Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act or many other topics related to disability and the law in Ireland. The clinic has appointments available in person and online until May 2025.

The clinic is based at the Centre for Disability Law and Policy in the University of Galway. In the clinic students on the Centre's LLM in International and Comparative Disability Law are supervised by a member of the CDLP team and a qualified legal practitioner. They research all queries before the appointment and do their best to provide detailed, accessible information.

Email dlic@universityofgalway.ie (<mailto:dlic@universityofgalway.ie>) to arrange an appointment or visit the Centre's website \(https://www.universityofgalway.ie/centre-disability-law-policy/dlic/\) to find out more.
