

Camphill Community Mountshannon: Live-In Volunteers (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/113902>)

Live-In Volunteers Wanted

Camphill Community Mountshannon is a very small working community in Ireland which includes residential vulnerable adults. We are looking for live-in volunteers to join us for a duration of either a one year, or two year cycle. There may be an option after two years to extend at the end of the period to join the community as a full time vocational member.

We are looking for mature, caring and like-minded individuals or couples of any age (21 to post retirement) with plenty of energy, creativity and a love of quiet rural life. Typically a volunteer might be thinking of a sabbatical, a career move towards social care, or they could be empty-nesters or about to embark on a gap-year.

Volunteers are given training, accommodation and meals plus a small allowance.
