

Beyond Ordinary: Get to Grips - Free Online Book Club for Health & Social Care Professionals (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/114068>)

Introducing Get to Grips, a book club for Health and Social Care Professionals by Beyond Ordinary. We meet once a month on zoom. There is no cost to join. This month, we're reading an article about the expression of anger in social care settings.

Join us on Wednesday 2nd of April at 7:30-9pm.

Sign up here (<https://www.beyondordinary.ie/event-details-registration/get-to-grips-with-beyond-ordinary/form>)

You can expect:

- articles that explore power and control
- texts that examine every day oppression
- critical opinions of experienced professionals
- documentaries about real life experiences

We will talk about

- what you took from the materials
- how it relates to your practice
- will and preference based perspectives
- human rights based perspectives
- what it means for your professional practice

All Health and Social Care Professionals are welcome! This is a space that will make you think, help you develop and reflect on your practice. There is no cost to coming to Get to Grips.
