

Ability Focus: Disability Awareness and Equality Training (90% Grant Funding) (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/114094>)

90% Grant Funding announced for Disability Awareness and Equality Training

Did you know that charities, not for profits and community based organisations can now avail of between 80% - 90% grant funding to have your staff trained in disability awareness and neurodiversity inclusion?

With up to 90% grant funding now available through the recently launched Work and Access Grant, it's easier than ever to upskill your team and ensure your workplace is accessible and welcoming for all.

About Ability Focus

Since 2019 Ability Focus is the leading provider of Disability Awareness & Equality Training in Ireland. We are proud to be the training partner of choice for many Irish government departments, state bodies, SME's, and organisations in the not-for-profit sector.

We provide industry leading programmes and reasonable accommodation advice to help organisations become disability confident. Our programmes are the only ones of their kind in Ireland which are CPD-certified, endorsed by the L&DI and delivered by QQI-certified trainers.

Check out our website for further information www.abilityfocus.ie (<http://www.abilityfocus.ie>)

Work & Access Grant - 80% to 90% Funding for Training Costs

Thanks to the Work and Access Grant, recently launched by the Department of Social Protection, all organisations operating within the not-for-profit, community and voluntary sectors can now access significant grant funding for Disability Awareness & Equality Training to be delivered to your team by an external trainer.

Ability Focus can assist you throughout the grant application process, making it seamless to access this support.

90% Grant-Funded Training Programmes

Ability Focus has a range of training programmes eligible for grant funding, including:

- Disability Awareness and Equality Training
- Supporting Neurodiversity in the Workplace Training
