ANA LIFFEY DRUG PROJECT IS HIRING AN EXCITING NEW FRONTLINE ROLE IN DUBLIN

Ana Liffey Drug Project seeks to recruit a New Communities Case Manager to join our Law Engagement Assisted Recovery (LEAR) team to focus on the North East Inner City area in Dublin.

LEAR works in direct partnership with An Garda Síochána on the frontline to provide services to people with complex needs. LEARs aim is to support people who have complex and multiple needs such as addiction, criminality, homelessness and mental health to engage effectively with support services, often for the first time, and to identify and achieve their goals. A key focus of the project is supporting people to move away from criminality and antisocial behaviour and towards their personal recovery.

This exciting new post focuses on reaching new communities in the NEIC with the LEAR model. As such, applicants should have an enhanced knowledge of the new communities in the area and appropriate language skills to engage with potential service users.

This is a full time post, salary is €40,372.

Terms and Conditions:

Project Worker (DUBLIN BASED- Specifically the North East Inner City area)

HOURS: 25 days exclusive of bank holidays (pro rata) 35 hours a week (FT).

SALARY(FT): €40,372

TEAM: Law Engagement Assisted Recovery (LEAR) Team

RESPONSIBLE TO: Team Leader

RESPONSIBLE FOR: The effective delivery of services at Ana Liffey Drug Project.
