

Treo Port Lairge: Relief Project Worker (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/114204>)

Relief Project Worker with Treo Port Lairge CLG

Treo provides a community-based programme that addresses the needs of people aged from 16 years who have demonstrated offending behaviour. Some are at risk of further criminal involvement arising from their behaviour and associations, others are on Probation or have served custodial sentences.

Treo endeavours to positively challenge offending behaviour through the provision of a structured and supportive mentoring and guidance programme. It aims to maximise the young people's access to appropriate and useful training, education and development programmes through mediating and negotiating with existing responses where appropriate, and through the design and implementation of initiatives where no current relevant provision exists.

Treo offers a model of engagement to participants, which meets the young person where he or she is at when first contact is made. The development of the programmes involves facilitating participants through a process, which enables him/her to identify his/her own needs.
