

Bedford Row Family Project: Through Care Support Worker (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/114503>)

Lower Bedford Row, Limerick. V94PT93

The Bedford Row Family Project is a community-based organisation based in Limerick City. We offer practical and holistic supports to families impacted by imprisonment.

We are currently recruiting for the role full time Through Care Support Worker. This position is based in Limerick City and Limerick Prison. The role will involve working with the person serving a sentence and create a multi-agency care plan for release. It will also involve family support for reconnection post release. This role needs a highly motivated empathetic individual with a knowledge of other agencies.

This role is subject to Garda Vetting and all applicants must hold a full Irish driving licence.
