Ruhama is an Irish NGO and registered charity that offers nationwide support to women affected by prostitution, human trafficking for the purpose of sexual exploitation. Founded in 1989, our organisation has extensive expertise in providing a wide range of specialist, holistic support services. Our services are free, confidential and delivered by a committed and experienced team. Ruhama also advocates and engages in policy work on issues related to prostitution, sex trafficking and the experiences of the women we work with.

The successful candidates will be responsible for providing a holistic person-centred approach to care and case management for service users who have been impacted by prostitution and trafficking for the purpose of sexual exploitation, including engaging in assertive outreach in collaboration with other service providers as well as in-reach to service providers.

Competitive Salary Scale, pro rata of €39,500 - €46,600 applies.
