The Irish Development Education Association is receiving registration for their third webinar in the webinar series Exploring Contemporary Crises and Issues through Global Citizenship Education: Between Neutrality and Militarisation, happening on Wednesday, 30 April, 12.30, Online via Zoom.

Global tensions are rising, with increasing drumbeats of war and militarism. What does the future hold for Ireland's role internationally? The ethos of Global Citizenship Education is based on global solidarity, empathy, and partnership, as well as challenging unequal power relations. This third session will explore the topics of militarisation, neutrality, and peace education. How do we explore militarisation through this lens and encourage critical thinking in the face of political hostilities? Speakers to be confirmed soon.
