CDYS is a voluntary youth and community organisation providing a range of quality services responding to the needs of children, young people, their families and communities in Cork.

Applications are invited for the following

Youth Justice Worker Youth Diversion Project Charleville / Mitchelstown

CDYS is recruiting for the post of Youth Justice Worker for the Mobile Youth Diversion Project in Charleville/ Mitchelstown. This project is delivered in partnership with the Irish Youth Justice Service and An Garda Síochána.

Garda Youth Diversion Projects are local community-based projects whose aim is to help young people move away from behaviour that brings them into contact with the justice system.

The projects offer opportunities for education, employment training, sport, art, music and other activities. The projects seek to encourage a better quality of life for everyone in the community and to support good relations between the Gardaí and the community.

Applicants should have a 3rd Level Degree (Level 8 or equivalent) in Youth Work, Social Care, or a related field and a minimum of 2 years' experience in working with young people in a targeted way in a youth, community/outreach setting.
