The continued development of recovery orientated services is a key priority of mental health services. The development of 'A National Framework for Recovery in Mental Health 2024–2028' sets out an understanding of recovery and recovery orientated services, the core values that underpin it, and the actions and measures that support such a service. This is also in line with This is also in line with Mental Health Ireland's strategy 2025-2027 – Empowering, Educating and Connection Communities (Priority Area 1, Objective 1.)

Mental Health Ireland is partnering with HSE Dublin South & Wicklow to develop, deliver, and embed Recovery Education across Dublin South East, East Wicklow, and Dún Laoghaire–Rathdown (Cluain Mhuire) mental health services. The advertised role plays an integral part in supporting the achievement of this aim.

Central to this is (1) offering a full programme of Recovery Education courses for service users and their family members, careers, and supporters every 3 months and (2) educating and training mental health professionals to deliver recovery orientated mental health services.

The Recovery Education Facilitator will support the development and delivery of Recovery Education in Community Healthcare East by:

- Co-facilitating the delivery of a wide range of Recovery Education courses.
- Leading the co-production of Recovery Education courses.
- Planning and co-ordinating the co-production and co-delivery of Recovery Education to specific groups, in specific locations.
- Working under the direction of the Recovery Coordinator (Dr Donal O'Keeffe).
- Participating as a person with Lived Experience in Recovery initiatives with the HSE and community partners.

To be eligible to apply for these posts, you must have:

- A commitment to recovery informed by relevant lived experience or family member mental health experience.
- Strong and demonstrable experience of group facilitation or similar engagement processes with service users and family members, carers, supporters, and mental health professionals as relevant to this role.

This position is a 2-year Fixed Term Contract. This is a hybrid post (with work being conducted both online and in relevant locations across the catchment. The successful candidate's office and most work will occur in Bray Primary Care Centre.
