

Spirasi: Psychotherapist (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/115335>)

Psychotherapist

Spirasi: A Place of Healing, Hope, and Impact

At Spirasi, we are dedicated to healing survivors of torture and empowering them to rebuild their lives. Through our therapeutic, rehabilitative, and educational services — delivered from our national centre in Dublin — we provide holistic support which helps individuals restore a more integrated sense of self and become active contributors to a better Ireland.

Our Impact

Since our founding, Spirasi has made a tangible difference:

- Over 7,100 survivors of torture have accessed our rehabilitation services.
- More than 2,800 English language students have graduated, gaining confidence and skills to integrate and thrive.

Our work is driven by the belief that every person deserves dignity, healing, and a chance to rebuild. Our team of 40 staff shares this commitment, making Spirasi a truly meaningful place to work. Why Work With Us?

At Spirasi, you'll join a passionate and skilled team dedicated to creating lasting change. You'll contribute to a mission that transforms lives and helps shape a more inclusive, compassionate Ireland.

We now invite applications from suitably qualified and experienced psychotherapists and/or psychologists to provide therapeutic interventions to survivors of torture.

Position summary:

Spirasi therapists offer individual and group therapeutic supports to individuals over 18 years of age who are survivors of torture. All our clinicians share the same scope of practice to support the goals of our clients in a collaborative, respectful, evidence-based, trauma-informed and culturally appropriate manner while drawing on their own unique training,

This position is based in Dublin with some potential for remote work. The successful candidate will adopt a blended working approach, providing both individual and group interventions—both in person and online—to survivors of torture from diverse cultural backgrounds. When necessary, this work will involve collaboration with interpreters.

A recruitment panel will be formed. A recruitment panel is a list of candidates who have been successful at the selection or interview stages. Candidates are placed in order of merit. The highest-scoring candidate is first on the panel; the candidate with the second highest mark is second and so on. The Psychotherapist Panel will be in place for one year after which it will be reviewed based on the following criteria:

- Is the panel exhausted i.e. is the panel empty? Have all vacancies been filled?;
- Is there a material change(s) in the initial recruitment process?

Candidates may request to be removed from a panel. This will need to be done in writing to the original recruitment contact in Spirasi.
