Save the Children's ambition is a world in which every child has the right to survive, learn and be protected. We were founded on the belief that every child deserves the chance of a future. This belief underpins everything we do.

We support children to transform their lives. We put children's rights at the core of all our work and strive for equity and social justice. We are committed to making a positive, lasting difference for and with children.

In over 100 countries Save the Children works in partnership with local organisations and communities; volunteers and the public; social movements and civil society groups; governments and international institutions; private sector organisations; foundations and philanthropists; artists and ambassadors; and, above all, with children and families to create change that lasts a lifetime.
