

Young Christian Workers (YCW) (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/183>)

The YCW is an international youth movement, which values the dignity and worth of each young person. It enables its members to challenge social exclusion and take action to bring about change in their home, their workplace and their social life.

Founded in Belgium in 1925 by Fr. Joseph Cardijn, the YCW believes that each young worker has a vital role to play in the solving of his or her own needs and problems. Starting with their own lives members are encouraged to Review their Life and look at possible solutions to bring about change.
