

Sonairte Ecology Visitor Centre (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/398>)

Sonairte, which is a registered charity, is an Ecology Centre in Laytown, Co Meath. The emphasis at the centre is education for all ages especially school goers, in ecology, sustainability and nature appreciation. There are also a variety of courses run throughout the year for both adults and children.

The centre, which is run completely by volunteers, has a classroom, main hall, three courtyards including an energy courtyard, a walled organic garden and a beautiful nature trail that runs by the river Nanny and includes an ancient rath. It also runs an Ecoshop and the Sunflower Café.
