

Conservation Volunteers Northern Ireland (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/431>)

Conservation Volunteers Northern Ireland (CVNI) is part of BTCV, a registered charity which exists to protect and improve the environment, predominantly through a partnership of the practical efforts of its many thousands of volunteers and the activities of its staff.

Our vision

A better environment where people are valued, included and involved.

Our mission

To create a more sustainable future by inspiring people and improving places.

Our values

Conservation Volunteers' values are integral to all our work. They have been developed through four decades of a 'hands-on' approach to conservation activities. During this time we have adapted to meet the changing needs of communities, we care about people, the communities in which they live and the quality of their environment.
