

Rape Crisis Network (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/647>)

The Rape Crisis Network (RCNI) is a multi-member political and campaigning organisation committed to the elimination of all forms of sexual violence through effecting political, cultural and social change.

Our agenda to effect change is directly provided by the experience and expertise of our member Rape Crisis Centres (RCCs).

Our vision is a society where rape and all other forms of sexual violence no longer exists.
