

Signal Arts Centre (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/77>)

Signal Arts Centre was set up in July 1990 to address the lack of a focal point for the visual arts in Bray and North Wicklow generally and at the same time create a practical facility where artists could both develop their own work and make the arts readily accessible to the local community as a resource.

Signal in common with other arts organisations is registered with the CRO as a not-for-profit limited company having a voluntary board of directors who are charged with the responsibility for the centres development.

The long-term aim is to establish a permanent centre of excellence for the visual arts in north Wicklow that will act as a facility both for local artists and arts bodies as well as the general community.

The Centre has made a significant impact in Bray, not only in the arts and educational fields but also as an addition to the town's basic tourism infrastructure. Signal first opened to the public since 1990 and in that time has embedded itself firmly into the cultural and social fabric of the community.

The centre has provided an irreplaceable resource for artists and the general public alike and continues to upgrade and develop its arts programme each year.
